

WINSTAR INTERACTIVE MEDIA

The place for Internet media brands. est 1996

Winstar to Host 5th Annual Sales Retreat

Winstar Interactive Media, celebrating 12 years in the industry this fall, is proud to announce their fifth annual sales retreat this May in Palm Beach, Florida. In existence since 1996, the staff is represented across six satellite national offices and their national headquarters in New York City. “We are so proud of our team, though some of us have never met each other after a year of daily interaction. This is the one time a year the entire company gets together to grow, both professionally and personally. This translates into a successful happy team”, quotes Adam Guild, CEO of Winstar.

While in Florida, Winstar will also be joined by two of their long standing publishers, Fodors.com and Zagat.com, and one of their newest clients, Txtvox.